ADAM D.H. GRANT RE-ELECTED TO SAN FERNANDO VALLEY BAR ASSOCIATION BOARD OF TRUSTEES

ENCINO, CALIF.--Adam D.H. Grant, a partner with the Encino law firm of Alpert, Barr & Grant, APLC, was elected to serve a second term on the Board of Trustees of the San Fernando Valley Bar Association. Grant will be installed for a one-year term this month.

In his current term as a bar trustee, Grant participated in the bar's Law Day where he taught elementary school children about the legal system. He also participated in annual lunches with San Fernando Valley superior court judges and Van Nuys superior court judges to maintain a close connection between the bar and the bench. "Next term, I'd like to increase public awareness of the bar's services and help communicate the positive contribution bar members make to the community," says Grant.

Grant is the fourth Alpert, Barr & Grant attorney to sit on the bar's Board of Trustees. Lee Kanon Alpert, Gary L. Barr and Mark S. Blackman are the firm's past bar board members. All three also served as President of the San Fernando Valley Bar.

"Our firm that has been active in the bar since the 1970s," says Grant. "It is my desire to continue that strong commitment to the bar and the community."
