

Alpert, Barr & Grant participates in "Light The Night Walk"

For the sixth year, Alpert, Barr & Grant employees and friends took part in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's "Light The Night Walk." The walk took place October 22 in Warner Center Park. The firm raised over $500 in donations. Heather Edwards, Alex Kasendorf (and his sons Sam and Noah) walked the two-miles around the park. For more information on Light the Night and the search for cures for blood-related cancers, go to <http://www.lightthenight.org/>.

